

Step back in time as you enter The Hacienda.

Originally built in the early 1900's, The Hacienda was a working ranch where oranges and avocados were the primary crops. The property was marked with lines of palm and orchid trees and what used to be the lengthy drive to the house, is now known as College Avenue.

The Hacienda has been owned and operated by June Neptune since 1975. She restored the home back to its original splendor, complete with courtyards, fountains, romantic balconies entwined in ivy, three fireplaces, grand staircases, antiques and much more.
